

The Week In Society.

TO WOMAN.

"A pepper-corn is very small, but seasons every dinner. More than all other condiments, although 'tis sprinkled thinner; Just so a little woman is, if Love will let you win her— There's not a joy in all the world you will not find within her. And as within the little rose you find the richest dyes, And in the little grain of gold much price and value lies, As from a little balsam much odor doth arise, So in a little Woman there's a taste of paradise. —From the Spanish of De Hita.

FRENCHMAN ON AMERICAN GIRLS.

A dispatch from Paris to the New York World says: "How can married women be distinguished from single ones in America. "This is the pointed question asked by Hughes Le Roux, a well-known French writer, who has been spending some months in the United States. The American girl has astonished and shocked him. She wears such magnificent jewels, he declares, as are only offered to a French woman on her marriage. She gowns herself, too, in the heavy velvets and silks only known to women of forty in France. "But the third and last proof of the complete absence of the 'jeune fille' element in the American girl which Mr. Le Roux cites is her indifference to marriage. Very often she believes in having a good time, he says, and refuses to consider the subject seriously at all. "This," observes Mr. Le Roux, "is not to be wondered at in a country where the mother and father neither advise nor hurry marriage, and where it is not preached from the pulpit on Sunday as a duty.

NEW STAMPS

World's Fair Issue Expected in a Few Days.

They Are Larger Than Regular Issue, But Not Elaborate.

The world's fair issue of stamps has been received in many places and will go on sale Monday, but none of the new series has yet been received in Paducah. It is expected at the post-office that a supply will be received in a few days.

The new stamps are larger than the regular issue and are among the handsomest ever issued by the government, though they are not as elaborate as those issued for the Columbian exposition. The special edition includes only one, two, three, five and ten cent stamps. The one cent stamp bears a picture of Livingston, who negotiated the treaty with France, the two cent stamp bears the likeness of Thomas Jefferson, the three cent Monroe and the five cent McKinley. The ten cent stamp has for its device a map of the United States, the Louisiana Purchase being printed in a solid color.
